Space to Entertain in Lofty Style

The Willow, the most spacious of The Farmstead styles, has 2,257 square feet of living space, plus a 544-square-foot two-car garage. Its open design offers a master suite with walk-in closets, a second bedroom and bath, centrally located laundry, and a large screened back porch that opens to a rear patio. Upstairs, you'll find another large bedroom and bath, a loft that overlooks the vaulted great room below, and additional space that can become a fourth bedroom or hideaway den.

A complimentary two-hour consultation with an interior designer is included with every home.
